

Nonlinear Averaging and PDEs

Bellavista Relax Hotel - Levico Terme (Trento) - Italy
June 19 - 22, 2019

Overview

The workshop will bring together a diverse group of mathematicians investigating connections between nonlinear partial differential equations and probability, broadly interpreted. Talks will enable participants to update one another on the latest developments in the field, and some time will be set for participants to collaborate and discuss in person on problems of common interest.
